The Liberal Review.

NEW SERIES, VOL. XIII., No. 329.] SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1906. [PRICE 6D.

The World We Live In.

THERE frequently come times in the life of every commercial man when reference to an Atlas or a Geography is positively imperative. If he does not possess these himself, he borrows them, and then more often than not they are unreliable and out-of-date. While a good Atlas and a good Geography are of the highest importance to Merchants, Professional men, and general readers of the various kinds, how much more indispensable are they to Teachers and Students?—In fact, no one nowadays can afford to be without either.

A Chance for Everyone who wishes to acquire

A GOOD ATLAS and A GOOD GEOGRAPHY.

On payment of 5/- down

(3s. 6d., and 1s. 6d. postage),

you can have sent to your home IMMEDIATELY

The BEST ATLAS and the BEST GEOGRAPHY

that can be had for the money.

THE ATLAS: THE XXTH CENTURY CITIZEN'S ATLAS OF THE WORLD (edited by J. G. BARTHOLOMEW, F.R.G.S.) is in many respects more complete than some Atlases at four times the price. Every name is clear and distinct; the plates are beautifully engraved and coloured—the maps have been reduced from the latest surveys, and are up-to-date and reliable—perfect works of art.

The Press is unanimous in its praise. Some of the highest Geographical Authorities have pronounced it THE BEST STANDARD ATLAS FOR POPULAR USE.

Not a village or hamlet has been omitted from the Map of England. The Atlas as a whole is as complete as it can be made for all the uses of general reference. It contains 156 large crown folio pages of Maps and Plans, with 210 pages of indices and descriptive text, including a valuable descriptive Gazetteer.

The Atlas forms a very handsome volume—is sumptuously produced—and may be had either in the Strong Art Canvas Binding or in Half Morocco. (See Terms below.)

THE GEOGRAPHY: A splendid acquisition to anyone; a treasury—a storehouse of all that is worth knowing about the world, its peoples, places, customs, commerce, &c. In short, an authoritative summary of THE WHOLE OF GEOGRAPHY. Edited by HUGH ROBERT MILL, D.Sc. Neither technical nor elementary, it is engagingly written and comprehensive in the subjects it embraces. Contributed to by SEVENTY DIFFERENT AUTHORS of Various Nationalities, each specialising in the territory with which he is most familiar.

1088 Pages. 489 Illustrations.

Beautifully Printed in good clear type. Handsomely Bound in heavy covers.

THE TERMS: These two beautiful books—this store of knowledge—will be sent (POST FREE) to your own home at once on receipt of 5s. down. The balance of £1 12s. 6d. is payable in 13 monthly payments of HALF-A-CROWN.

The Geography is published in Cloth only, price 15s., but the Atlas is published in two bindings: Art Canvas, £1 1s. net, and Half-Morocco, £1 5s. net. For the latter binding an extra charge of 4s. is made, which must be paid with the first or second instalment. The Atlas and Geography combined put one in possession of a knowledge of the world he lives in as complete as the united efforts of the seventy authors and many geographers and cartographers can make it. This knowledge means power; it imparts a thrill of pleasure to know that all this wealth of wisdom is at one's finger ends—to draw on when occasion arises.

THESE BOOKS ARE A TREASURE

which only those who have felt the want of a comprehensive Geography—and a COMPLETE Atlas—can appreciate.

There is no excuse to be without them; the terms on which they are obtainable are THE EASIEST OF THE EASY.

ORDER FORM.

SECOND IMPRESSION.

Towards a Social Policy.

SUGGESTIONS FOR

CONSTRUCTIVE DOMESTIC REFORM.

By Various Writers.

Representing the conclusions of a Committee consisting of Messrs. C. R. BUXTON, H. C. FAIRFAX-CHOLMELEY, J. L. HAMMOND, F. W. HIRST, L. T. HOBHOUSE, J. A. HOBSON, C. F. G. MASTERMAN, J. H. MORGAN, and VAUGHAN NASH.

"It is clear that the Liberal Party is going to have a big—perhaps a colossal majority. What will it do with that majority? That, I fear, is not so clear. We must all welcome, therefore, such a volume as the Speaker Office has produced under the title of 'Towards a Social Policy.' It is full of hard thinking and solid information, and should be a mine for platform speakers in the coming General Election."—DAILY CHRONICLE.

"The book should be in the hand of everyone who loves his country. It is a lucid and comprehensive statement of the causes of the blight that is falling upon the race, and of the remedies to be applied."—DAILY NEWS.

"'Towards a Social Policy' decidedly 'gives us to think.' Its authors are doing the Liberal Party a notable service."—WESTMINSTER GAZETTE.

"They (the readers) will find within its hundred and twenty odd pages much keen diagnosis of existing evils, much outspoken criticism of the slipshod palliatives with which we have hitherto been content to attempt to meet them, and many bold suggestions—some very bold indeed—as to the direction in which the real remedies are to be found. They may not agree. They cannot fail to be interested."—MORNING LEADER.
